3 Dec 2013

Join Melrose Arch this December for craft beers, big band swing and all that jazz. Enjoy the Rhythm and Brews festival over two days in the Melrose Arch Precinct featuring a range of craft beers and live music.

Swing with the Johannesburg Big Band (JBB), conducted by award winning composer and experienced musical director, Adam Howard featuring soloists Tracey-Lee Oliver and Cito on 5 December at 6pm.

On 6 December, JBB makes way for the Johannesburg Festival Orchestra as they play Louis Armstrong, featuring soloists Prince Lengoasa and Veramarie Meyer, conducted by musical director Richard Cock. The kids can enjoy LEGO KIDS daily from 5 to 8 December on the Middle Level Galleria.

With extended hours, The Union Bar Craft Beer and Cocktail Studio is where 45 of the world's best craft beers can be found. Opened from Wednesday to Saturday, from 4pm to 1am and Sunday from 4pm to 10.30pm, there's plenty of time. Melrose Arch has extended its shopping hours.

Please note, from 21 November to 15 December 2013 retail shopping hours will be as follows:?

Monday to Saturday - 9am to 7pm

Sunday - 9am to 5pm
