30 Aug 2007

The twelfth annual Homemakers Expo opened its doors yesterday and will be open until Sunday, 2 September 2007, at the Cape Town International Convention Centre (CTICC). Showcasing the latest trends in home improvement and home enhancement, the Expo promises to inspire all home lovers.

Exhibits range from basic home improvement products to innovative décor ideas for the home and garden. One of the great benefits is that the Expo offers a vast array of products and services under one roof, giving visitors the opportunity to explore, compare (prices) and discuss their specific needs and problems with knowledgeable exhibitors.

The Cape Homemakers Expo forms part of Homemakers Media Holdings, a national group which annually presents eight similar home lifestyle shows in Johannesburg, Cape Town, Pretoria, Durban Bloemfontein, Port Elizabeth, George and Vaal Triangle. This is South Africa's biggest home enhancement exhibition group and since inception 15 years ago has proven to be the country's premier home lifestyle event.

Entrance for adults is R45, pensioners pay R25 and children younger than twelve enter free of charge.
