Whether you're renovating, building, or just want to try something new for your living space, you can discover new ideas and trends at the third annual Vaal HOMEMAKERSexpo, on at the events and exhibition centre, Emerald Casino, from 24-27 July 2008.

With over 175 market leading home improvement exhibitors on 3 000 m², the Vaal HOMEMAKERSexpo will captivate homeowners' imagination. From major fixtures in the home to innovative decor ideas, the show promises to provide visitors with the opportunity to discuss their needs with industry experts and compare various offerings.

Winter is the ideal time to start planning your interior and exterior home improvement projects and this year's show will offer you all the products and services required to kick-start those creative juices and get you into home improvement overdrive.

You're thinking of upgrading your kitchen and mind you, your 35-year-old bath has seen better days... a fireplace would be nice, that old couch is looking tatty, better get those gutters sorted out before the summer rains...

This is the prime reason why the HOMEMAKERexpo platform continues to be such a success: where else would you be able to address all your home improvement needs all under one roof and in a short space of time? And what's more, you will be able to have face-to-face interaction with the experts and compare offerings from various companies.

So, don't miss the most comprehensive home enhancement expo in the Vaal Triangle area.
