This week the popular home lifestyle show Jacaranda Homemakers Expo opens its doors in Pretoria for the ninth year running. This expo has gained the reputation as the capital's trendsetting home lifestyle show, and with 430 exhibits is the biggest of its kind in Northern Gauteng.

Described as a festival of trends and ideas the expo offers everything pertaining to the home, exhibits range from basic home improvement products to beautiful décor accessories. It is on from 23 to 26 June in Hall J and L at the Tshwane Events Centre (previously Pretoria International show grounds) and covers more than 13 000m².

At the interactive African Heritage Demo Area, experts part knowledge on various aspects in and around the home, offering visitors valuable free consultation and advice.

This expo is also known for the great prizes that are given away during the course of the show. This year is no exception with in excess of R250 000 worth of prizes. The lion share of this will go to one lucky Jacaranda 94.2 listener who will win a living room makeover to the value of R170 000.
