Haezer is one of those artists whose talent just grows and grows. If you've listened to his music, or have seen him play live you will know that his high-energy, bass-heavy electro thrash leaves lasting memories - his set at Ramfest this year was one of those for me.

Myself and Marcello Adams linked up with him last week over a few beers to find out more about his upcoming EP "The Wrong Kid Died", his origins as an artist, his take on the scene and what the future holds.
