

DMA reacts positively to postal tariffs

A Direct Marketing Association member survey has indicated that the industry has reacted positively to the revised postal tariffs and discount structures which were implemented after extended negotiations between the DMA and Post Office.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>