Naidoo takes on this new role having spent the last three years working for the agency as managing director with a key focus on client experience. She has excelled in this position, supporting the development of the agency and local teams. Prior to this, she was MediaCom's head of analytics and insights and spent time at Kagiso, Nielsen and spent three years as a journalist.

"We're delighted Claudelle has been promoted to CEO for our MediaCom South Africa operation. She brings strong client management and thought-leadership expertise that will help us anticipate the needs of our clients. Her passion for media and innovation will ensure we continue to create amazing and effective solutions for the brands we work with," said Adam Hiscock, MediaCom EMEA COO. "I'd also like to thank Ashish for his amazing work in South Africa, and I know he'll continue to play a strong part in our international leadership."
