

Werner Lindemann joins Kagiso Media

Kagiso Media has announced that Werner Lindemann has joined the group as group commercial director.

His key focus areas in his new position will include all group commercial processes namely top line growth, business development, sales, customer relationship and talent development. He will also look at the group's commercial positioning within the rest of Africa and will oversee larger or multiple Opco deals.

Prior to joining Kagiso Media, Werner served as MD at Datacentrix and before that as vice president for IBM Global Technology Services in Sub-Saharan Africa.
