

Stink Studios opens office in Shenzhen

Stink Studios has opened a second office in Shenzhen, China. Ramzi Chaabane, managing director of the company's Chinese headquarters in Shanghai, will oversee the Shenzhen office.

The expansion reflects a growing demand from Chinese tech companies for world-class creative campaigns, design and digital experiences.

Addie Hao, a Stink Studios veteran who relocated from Shanghai to Shenzhen, will oversee the office's creative output.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>