

Anglo mourns death of company spokesman

It is with deep sadness that Anglo Platinum announced that Mike Mtakati, Group Manager, Corporate Communications and the company spokesperson, was tragically killed, together with his wife, Nonhlanhla and his four children, in a car accident early December 2004. Their nieces, travelling with them, also died in the accident. The directors and staff of Anglo Platinum and Anglo American extend sincere condolences to the Mtakati family, colleagues and friends. Mtakati joined Anglo Platinum in February 1998.
