

China comes to AB7, SAITEX

The China in Africa Workshop, which takes place on 18 July 2011, at Gallagher Convention Centre, Midrand, during the SAITEX and Africa's Big 7 expos, brings together top international business leaders in an intensive half day seminar which aims to provide practical and dynamic information to delegates about Chinese involvement in Africa. The programme covers trade analysis with main products, current and upcoming projects, the current and future footprint of the Chinese national companies, and the perspectives of a major Chinese funding agency. Speakers include Nitesh Dullabh, director of The Beijing Axis; partner and director of Whitehouse & Associates, Duncan Bonnett; and Paul Runge, MD of Africa Project Access. More information or to book, email: joburg@fairconsultants.com.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>