

Webber Wentzel recruits Lionel Egypt as partner

Source: Supplied | Webber Wentzel's newest partner, Lionel Egypt

Lionel Egypt is now a partner of Webber Wentzel. He joined the firm from Cliffe Dekker Hofmeyr where he served as a director in its dispute resolution practice and as head of its public law sector.

Egypt has extensive experience in administrative and constitutional law, including judicial reviews and tender related disputes. He has gained specialist knowledge in the high court and appellate litigation.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>