

Here's what Trevor Noah really said at the Oscars

According to Enca, Trevor Noah mocked people that believed Wakanda is an actual place while introducing the Best Picture nominee at the 91st Academy Awards,

The comedian said abelungu abazi ubu ndiyaxoka - which means "In times like these, we are stronger when we fight together than when we try to fight apart."

However, the actual translation is "White people don't know I'm lying."

Read more on this here

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>