

Sapin to host free webinar on estate planning for property investors

This September, SA Property Investors Network (Sapin), in partnership with personalised online wills platform SmartWill, is hosting a free webinar covering the hidden costs of death for property investors. The webinar aims to educate and add value to anyone involved in the property industry, by shining a light on common, but not always known pitfalls, that can cost an individual their livelihood.

Source: rawpixel – 123RF.com

Hosted by Jade Barkhuysen, property investor, commercial property broker, coach and entrepreneur, the webinar will cover the hidden costs that property investors may be unaware of when it comes to death and how they can protect themselves, their portfolio and their loved one's from losing wealth and inheritances.

Joining Barkhuysen is guest speaker Zale Hechter, MD at Cliqtech (creators of the SmartWill platform), where they will provide insights into the importance of wills, the cost of death, estate planning and structuring, planning for the future and how to mitigate all the risks involved.

What lessons we can learn from the Zulu King's last will and testament

Alex Simeonides 25 May 2021

The webinar is free for anyone involved in the property development sector. Sapin believes that education is key to eradicating unemployment and coupled with property investment it is an unmatched vehicle to sustainable wealth creation.

Details of the webinar:

Date: Tuesday, 7 September 2021

Time: 6pm - 7.30pm

Registration: <https://sapropertynetwork.com/expert-advice-webinar-series/>

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>