

Louvre Abu Dhabi programme to feature South African dance band

The Louvre Abu Dhabi's first-ever programme of events and activities features South African dance band Via Sophiatown.

The museum will host the band on 19 - 21 April 2018. The dances will be a combination of step-dancing and hip-hop that will be partnered with three live jazz musicians.

The various cultural performances for the events programme will demonstrate to visitors the museum's value and themes.
