23 Sep 2008

Join us on the 8th October for the next AMASA meeting where guest speaker Randall Abrahams shares his presentation titled "The effect of media on the audience" which focuses on the overall levels of media coverage and how it plays a cumulative role in affecting consciousness and behaviour.

Some marketers may look at their audience in terms of income and other demographic profiling criteria but this month we're given an anthropological view of how media permeates daily life and the media cues consumers learn from which drive their behaviour.

Don't miss this month's influential speaker...and don't forget to invite your colleagues from the industry to attend!

Date: Wednesday 8 October 2008

Time: 16h00 for 16h30

Venue: The JSE, 1 Exchange Square, Gwen Lane, Sandown - parking available at Village Walk

Cost: AMASA Members - Free; Non-Members - R50.00
