We can like to hire a creative copy-righter.

As you can see...we're in need of a writer.

So, if you're ready to join an ink-slinging, sailor-talking, shoulder-dusting, big-thinking, award-winning, team of creative reprobates?

Then, welcome to Guerilla CPT!

We're looking for a curious wordsmith that can 'right' copy which leads to the ultimate office high-five in 200fps (if you know what that is, you may just be the 'write' person).

TVC Scripts, conceptual AF, short -'ka-boom' copy, long copy and everything in-between.

You've gotta be a hotshot junior-mid, mid, mid-wife, we don't care. We'll inject your precious little heart with non-traditional agency shenanigans then set it free like a clay pigeon.

If you're visual - even better!

If you can think and write in vernac... and know the difference between a g-string and a G-string, then hosh!

You need to be a rebel, everything you've ever absorbed in your previous lifetime, light it up and set it on fire.

We dare you to apply. Oh, and please send a link of your portfolio when applying, if you don't have a link to your portfolio, then eish, what can we say...don't apply.

Your portfolio needs to have:

- Radio (executed)
- TVC (executed)
- Social campaign copy
- Digital campaign copy

And an example of a rationale and big idea...any previous presso will be good.

A big ask...from our little hearts.

Skills required:

- Copy
- Concept
- Curious
