The position will become vacant at the end of August this year when the term of office of Chief Justice Raymond Zondo comes to an end.

Submissions are also sought on the President's nomination of the chairperson of the Electoral Court, Justice Dumisani Zondi, to the position of the deputy president of the Supreme Court of Appeal.

"Deputy Chief Justice MML Maya and Justice DH Zondi have accepted nomination and on 22 March 2024 submitted the required questionnaire for judges and all the standard documents required of persons who seek to be appointed as judges.

“Law bodies, members of the public and other interested institutions are invited to make written submissions on the suitability or otherwise of the President’s nominees for appointment as chief justice and deputy president of the SCA respectively, and any other relevant information relevant to the selection process,” the JSC said.
