

Marriott opens second hotel in Kenya overlooking famous Nairobi National Park

Marriott International has further strengthened its presence in Kenya with the announcement of the opening of its second hotel Four Points by Sheraton. The hotel is situated in the main complex of the Jomo Kenyatta International Airport, within easy reach from major highways and overlooks the famous Nairobi National Park, the World's Wildlife Capital.

“Four Points by Sheraton Nairobi Airport is a great addition to our East Africa portfolio and strengthens our rapidly growing presence in the region,” said Alex Kyriakidis, president and managing director, Middle East and Africa, Marriott International. “As a gateway city into the continent, Nairobi is a natural travel hub. We are confident that with its blend of stylish comfort and genuine service at an honest value, the hotel will meet the rising demand for high-calibre lodging in this fast-growing market and soon emerge as a leading choice among business and leisure travellers.”

Authentic locale

The all-new 172 room Four Points by Sheraton Nairobi Airport, features spacious and modern rooms including suites. It also offers dining options including an all-day dining, a lobby café and a rooftop bar and grill, Tazama.

The hotel offers the brand's defining touches, including the Four Points by Sheraton Four Comfort Bed, complimentary bottled water in all rooms, fast and free Wi-Fi throughout the hotel and an energising breakfast with fresh coffee that helps guests start the day right. Other facilities include a rooftop pool, a state of the art fitness centre and a modest spa. With 3,500 square feet of flexible indoor and outdoor meeting space, the hotel is an ideal venue for meetings and events. It also provides a complimentary shuttle to the airport terminal throughout the day.

Four Points growth

Four Points has proven to be a global hit with its distinctive identity and ability to meet the increasing demands of the modern, everyday traveller. The brand is experiencing incredible growth momentum having recently crossed the 200th hotel milestone globally. In East Africa alone, the brand debuted in Kenya earlier this year with the opening of Four Points by Sheraton Nairobi, Hurlingham followed by its recent foray into Tanzania with the opening of Four Points by Sheraton Arusha, The Arusha Hotel. It is now gearing up to open Four Points by Sheraton Dar es Salaam, New Africa Hotel in the next couple of months.
