

More F1 Races added to 2020 calendar

The 2020 Formula One season calendar was confirmed just a few weeks ago.

F1 was one of the very first international codes to restart after the chaos caused on world sport by the worldwide Covid-19 pandemic. Organisers have confirmed that two more races have been added to the schedule.

Italy's Mugello circuit will host the Tuscan Grand Prix (13 September) and the Russian Grand Prix at Sochi (27 September) are the two additions.

The graphic features the F1 logo and the text 'UPDATED 2020 CALENDAR' at the top. Below this is a table of 10 rounds, each with a flag, country, and dates. The background shows a Formula 1 car on a track.

ROUND 1		AUSTRIA	3-5 JULY	ROUND 6		SPAIN	14-16 AUGUST
ROUND 2		AUSTRIA	10-12 JULY	ROUND 7		BELGIUM	28-30 AUGUST
ROUND 3		HUNGARY	17-19 JULY	ROUND 8		ITALY (MONZA)	4-6 SEPTEMBER
ROUND 4		GREAT BRITAIN	31 JULY-2 AUGUST	ROUND 9		ITALY (MUGELLO)	11-13 SEPTEMBER
ROUND 5		GREAT BRITAIN	7-9 AUGUST	ROUND 10		RUSSIA	25-27 SEPTEMBER

FURTHER RACES TO BE ANNOUNCED

Find out more at doubleapex.co.za

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>